Thank you for your letter dated 13/06/2013 (attached for reference)

I agree with the reasoning exposed, but I struggle to understand the maths behind the calculation of the fee figure of £442.50

I may be reading something wrong and I apologise if that is the case, but Schedule 1, part 2, category 8 corresponds to a fee of £195.00

8. The construction of car parks, service roads and other means of access on land used for the purposes of a single undertaking, where the development is required for a purpose incidental to the existing use of the land.£195.

To which a surcharge of 50% is applicable as you rightly point out. This would equate to a total fee payable of £292.50 which is the sum we have paid.

Could you please indicate how you arrive to the figure of £442.50?

Thanks and regards

Jaime Uriarte
