with a FREE charity place at the Simplyhealth great Birmingham run when you run and raise money for

The Sunday Mercury's Give A Child Health fund has been helping children with breathing problems since 1953. Originally founded to send youngsters with tuberculosis to clinic in Davos, Switzerland, today it helps ill children across the city in so many more ways. The fund has given far in excess of £1 MILLION to help needy children in the city, including £600,000 in recent years. Get in touch today to see how you can take on a challenge of your own in 2019.

Our reception has now closed to the general public

Reach

The reception counter will close on Friday December 21.

The decision has been taken because of the low numbers of people who still use the front office to book adverts, public notices and family announcements. These services have all been available via phone and online for some time and are widely used.

Our journalists and advertising sales staff and support staff will continue to work at our Canal Basin office.

You can still book appointments to see our staff at the office.

Here is how you can continue to access our services:

To place a family announcement 02476 500255

For photo sales 0191 201 6000

For Subscriptions 0333 2028000

Contact our journalists

Please don't turn up at the office without an appointment. You can call us on the main number 02476 633633 or call the newsdesk direct on 02476 500 337, 02476 500 343, or 02476 500 531.
