SULLIVAN CONSULTING

ORORA

YOUR AUSTRALIAN DREAM AWAITS...

Orora is currently seeking a Manufacturing Process Development Manager and a Production Manager to join their team in Adelaide, South Australia. This beautiful city is home to tranquil beaches, world-leading wineries within the surrounding hills, offers excellent schools, bustling events and with very low COVID-19 cases.

MANUFACTURING PROCESS DEVELOPMENT MANAGER

Reporting directly to the Operations Director, the Manufacturing Process Development Manager is the technical expert in glass container design, bottle forming equipment, operation and process. This role ensures that all plant and equipment is set up and running to optimum performance by assisting plant quality and overseeing forming and engineering personnel in all aspects of the process including bottle design, setups, root cause analysis, training and development requirements.

PRODUCTION MANAGER

The Production Manager is responsible for the entire performance of their designed tank across all shifts. They ensure that production objectives are met on time and within quality, safety, and environmental guidelines. This role will promote a customer centric culture that is based on a positive philosophy of Celebrating Success, whilst being responsible for the development and management of people to ensure a high performing and continuous improvement focus.
